Kano Gubernatorial Candidates Sign 2nd Peace Accord

By Rabi'u M. Sagir

Governor Abdullahi Umar Ganduje and other thirty gubernatorial candidates signed a second peace accord on Wednesday, 6th March, 2019, at the Convocation Arena, Bayero University, Kano.

The Co-Chairman of the Committee and Rt. Reverend, John Namaza Niyiring, said, after observing the dangerous trend, which political campaigns were taking, the committee held a meeting with the stakeholders, particularly those that signed the first peace accord and agreed that another peace accord should be signed.

Reverend Niyiring also noted that since the signing of the First Peace Accord, the committee had developed some serious concerns on the peace of Kano State, particularly putting into consideration the unhealthy political happenings in the state during political rallies. Notably among which were at Dawakin Tofa, Kofa, Bebeji Local Government and some areas at Dala Local Government, which were alleged to have claimed the lives of some people, destroyed property and burnt cars, which is a bad omen in Nigerian democracy, particularly in Kano State.

The Emir of Kano, Malam Muhammadu Sanusi II, said the country was in need of political stability, which can be achieved through maintaining peaceful co-existence among the citizens of Nigeria. The Emir was represented by Rogo District Head, Alhaji Aliyu Maharazu, the Bauren Kano, who said Nigerians should learn from other nations, which had faced instability before.

The Kano Commissioner of Police, Muhammadu Wakili, said he would do everything possible to ensure peaceful conduct of the elections as he did during the Presidential election. "I beg you if any blood is to be shed during election, let it be my blood", the CP said.

The Governor of Kano State and the candidate of the All Progressive Congress (APC), Dr. Abdullahi Umar Ganduje, assured the committee that he would do his best to ensure peace before, during and after the elections. In a brief address to newsmen after the occasion, the PDP Candidate, Abba K. Yusuf, assured keeping to the terms and conditions of the peace accord.

Governor Ganduje Commissions New Mosque in Faculty of Education

By Rabi'u M. Sagir

The Executive Governor of Kano State, Dr. Abdullahi Umar Ganduje, commissioned a brand new mosque at the Faculty of Education on Wednesday, 6th March, 2019. The mosque was built under the umbrella of the Ganduje Foundation. Governor Ganduje said Bayero University deserved more than the building of a mosque due to its outstanding contribution to the development of Kano State.

Governor Ganduje promised to continue working with the management of the University in order to achieve the desired goal, which will lift Kano state to the next level.

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, represented by the Director, Academic Planning, Professor Bala Sidi, thanked Governor Ganduje and his

Foundation for the good gesture.

Election: VC Commends Ad-Hoc Staff - Enjoins Similar Commitment to Gubernatorial, State Assembly Elections

The Vice Chancellor, Professor Muhammad Yahuza Bello, has expressed his appreciation to all University staff that served at ad-hoc level during the 2019 Presidential and National Assembly elections conducted on Saturday, 23rd February, 2019.

VC, Prof. M. Y. Bello

In a statement signed by the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Administration), Professor Haruna Wakili, the Vice Chancellor described the staff participation as a commitment and a sacrifice to the nation. He equally urged them to continue to demonstrate the spirit of selflessness and a high sense of integrity in the forthcoming Gubernatorial and State House of Assembly elections scheduled to take place on Saturday, 9th March, 2019.

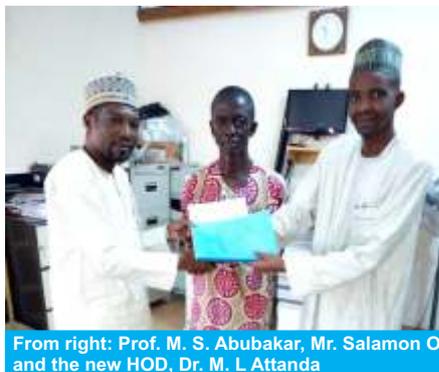

It could be recalled that Professor Bello had on Thursday, 14th February, 2019, during the training of collation/returning officers at Mahmud Tukur Theatre, Old Campus, urged the ad-hoc staff to save their integrity by ensuring free, fair and credible elections.

He charged them to be impartial in conducting their assigned duties and learn through studying INEC manual and sharing their experiences with other colleagues before proceeding to the field.

Dr. Attanda Assumes Office as New HOD, Agric. and Environmental Engineering

The outgoing Head of the Department of Agricultural and Environmental Engineering, Professor M. S. Abubakar, has formally handed over the affairs of the Department to the in-coming Head of Department, Dr. M. L. Attanda, expressing his willingness to continue to assist the development of the Department.

Professor Abubakar, while handing over during a ceremony on Tuesday, 5th March, 2019 at the HOD's office in the presence of Mr. Solomon Ochei, the Department Secretary, prayed God to bless the new HOD with the energy and wisdom to discharge his duties for the benefit of the Department, Faculty of Engineering and the University in
